Miller Pecans added to Fall Popcorn Sales Program

Miller Pecans has replaced Durham Nuts in this year's Fall Popcorn Sales Program.

There are four dates when order forms can be turned in to the Scout office for delivery the following week:

Turn in form by:	for Delivery on:
9/2/22	9/9/22
10/7/22	10/14/22
11/4/22	11/11/22
12/2/22	12/9/22

Please turn in the money for the orders when the order form is turned in.

Click HERE for a complete calendar for this year's Fall Popcorn Sales Program.

Miller Pecans are grown locally on the Miller family farm pecan trees nestled in the creek beds of the Neosho River Valley.

The price is simple -- it's either $10 or $15 per item (see the order form)

Units and the Council will share the profit 50/50.

For example:

For each $10 item sold, the unit gets to keep $2.62

For the Mammoth Pecans at $15, the unit gets to keep $3.50

For the Pecan pieces at $15, the unit gets to keep $4.00

PLEASE NOTE: Once the unit has received the product, the unit is responsible for keeping the chocolate cool so it doesn't melt.

Questions? Contact Diana at the Scout office.

Scholarships available for the biggest Scouting event in the country

We're officially one year away from the National Jamboree.

If your Scout wants to attend the big event but hesitates about the price tag, the BSA offers scholarships that could cover any requested amount up to the full national fee of $1,285.

The BSA wants to ensure that every eligible Scout who wants to attend the Jamboree can do so — regardless of financial background. Scouts are encouraged to fundraise as much as they can to cover fees, travel expenses, and other costs.

Full scholarships from BSA National will only be given in the most extraordinary cases; most scholarships will total less than half the national fee. Scholarships are only available for youth participants or unit leaders up to age 33. Jamboree staff members are not eligible for a scholarship; all staff members ages 16-33 receive a reduced fee.

The initial application deadline is July 31, 2022, with those applicants being notified if they've been approved by mid-September.

A second scholarship deadline will be Dec. 31, 2022, with those applicants being notified by mid-February.

To be considered, you will need to submit an online application and be approved by your council to attend by July 31 (for first-round applicants) or Dec. 31 (for second-round applicants). Check here for full eligibility requirements and steps on the application process.

UNIT PROGRAM PLANNING

Planning your annual calendar is a vital piece for your unit. Make your plan and get input from the youth, leaders, and families to ensure they get the most out of the Scouting program.

First, you will need calendars such as school calendars, community event calendars, and of course, Scouting event calendars (Council events, training, district events, popcorn/camp card dates, summer camp, and more!).

To view all the exciting events occurring over the next 18 months you can visit the Cherokee Area event calendar HERE or access it through our council website.

Next, make a plan to get everyone involved in this process. The BSA has some great resources for organizing annual planning conferences from forms, sample agendas, short videos, and PowerPoint presentations.

they get closer and get ready to have a great year of Scouting!

Why you should consider an offseason family vacation to Florida Sea Base

At the southernmost tip of our country lies a tropical paradise known as the Florida Keys. It's the perfect place for a family vacation, and from October through April, the BSA has you covered.

The program is open to families with youth under 18 and to all adults registered with the BSA.

Add the BSA Brand Center to your list of tools for marketing your unit

There are many effective ways to market your unit to the families in your community.

Whether you prefer the old-school brochure or the fancy new social media asset — or maybe a little bit of both — the BSA Brand Center is here to help.

“Years ago, we said, ‘We need a place where people can find copies of logos, flyers ... all that marketing and promotional stuff that we need to spread the word about Scouting,’ says Michael Ramsey, the BSA’s director of marketing and brand management. “So, we created the BSA Brand Center.”

The Brand Center is your source for BSA logos, photographs, promotional videos, and templates you can use to promote your Scouting unit. And all of it is free. Creating a username and password will give you access to additional features, but even that isn’t required.
