BeAScout pin is up to date

There are lots of different ways to recruit new members to Scouting. One of the easiest and most valuable is to make sure your unit's information is up to date at BeAScout.org, the official BSA site that allows members of the public to find Scouting units near them.

The BeAScout website allows anyone to search for a Cub Scout pack, Scouts BSA troop, Venturing crew, Sea Scout ship, or Exploring post by zip code. We call the search results "pins" because they're displayed on a web page that looks like pins on a map.

Each pin represents a different Scouting unit, and when you click on a pin, you find contact information and sometimes even an online application that allows a public member to sign up for your unit right then and there.

There's just one catch: You have to keep your unit's information up to date; otherwise, people looking to join the BSA could be greeted by outdated email addresses and phone numbers.

The good news is, it's easy to do. Here's how.

Woodbadge 2024

Our friends in Quivira Council, Boy Scouts of America are hosting Wood Badge in April 2024.

Wood Badge is a premiere leadership training opportunity available to Scouting volunteers at all levels.

I hope to see you there!
