Cub Scout Camping

As of September 1, 2023, Cub Scout Pack unit-coordinated camping is limited to two-night camping experiences.

Cub Scout camping is limited to a council's designated locations with appropriate facilities.

- The facilities listed HERE (or at the button below) have been appraised and approved for Cub Scout Camping by the Cherokee Area Council.
- Units may request a site appraisal from the council but cannot do their own appraisal. To request an appraisal for a site, contact one of the individuals below.

News from Units Around the Council

Take Order Invoice due -- Popcorn Prize Portal closes

Trop 6B and Troop 6G held a Court of Honor and shared the pioneering award they earned at summer camp.

Ryan McIver from Troop 5 had his Eagle Court of Honor.

Pack 66 held a recruitment night in Vinita and had a good turnout. We received seven new applications with four more on the way. At least a half dozen calls from parents could not make it. Hopefully, they come to the next meeting and get signed up.

Troop 78 has two new Eagle Scouts - Jace Collier and Justin Quinton.
